Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

This is the non-final Office Action for the serial number 10/608,735, ONE-PIECE MOLDED CLAMP, filed on 6/27/03.

The examiner withdraws the allowability of claim 4 in view of new ground of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 4 and 23-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US Patent # 3,054,585 to Roberts et al.

Robert et al. teaches an adjustable one-piece molded clamp comprising a first jaw (114) having inward facing surface, an outward facing surface, a first end and a second end. The clamp includes a second jaw (13) unitarily formed with the first jaw. The second jaw has an inward facing surface, an outward facing surface, a first end and a second end. The clamp comprises a tension strap (110) unitary formed with the first jaw. The outward facing surface of the second jaw having at least two notches (15) angularly offset from the outward facing surface. The strap having at least one through-aperture having an inner edge through which the second jaw is able to pass. The inner edge of the through-aperture is able to be releasably engaged with at least one of the notches. The second ends of the first and second jaws further comprise means to mount (112 and fastener) the clamp on a surface. The clamp is made of polymer (plastic material, col. 1, line 71).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 21-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Roberts et al. in view of US Patent # 6,164,604 to Cirino et al.

Robert et al. teaches the clamp but fails to teach the clamp includes at least one protrusion on the inward facing surfaces of the first and second jaws. Cirino et al. teaches the clamp having at least one protrusion (12) on the inward facing surfaces of the first and second jaws. It would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have added protrusion to Robert et al.'s first and second jaws as taught by Cirino et al. to prevent an object from rotating inside the first and second jaws.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 4 and 21-24 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

The examiner draft a proposed claim language for claim 4 to place the application in condition for allowance but the applicant declined. The examiner proposed to add ---said strap comprising first and second ends and wherein the first end of strap is located below of the first jaw and lower than said top part of the jaw.--- to overcome Robert et al.'s reference.

Conclusion

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Alfred Joseph Wujciak III whose telephone number is (571) 272-6827. The examiner can normally be reached on 8am-4:30pm.
